Education: Bachelor of Arts, History University of Michigan, 1984; Juris Doctorate Case Western Reserve University School of Law 1987.

Marc Dann is the Managing Partner of DannLaw. His practice focuses on representing clients who have been harmed by banks, debt buyers, debt collectors and other financial predators. He has fought for the rights of thousands of consumers and brought class actions lawsuits in both private practice and as Ohio's Attorney General.

Marc Dann has devoted his entire legal career to fighting for homeowners, consumers and small businesses beginning with his tenure as the Antitrust Director in the office of the West Virginia Attorney General. After leaving that post he entered private practice and was subsequently elected to the Ohio Senate where he introduced numerous consumer protection bills including a comprehensive predatory lending law that was rated among the best in the United States. He also led successful efforts to lengthen the statute of limitations for victims of child sexual abuse, expand the rights of crime victims, and extend the reach of the Ohio Consumer Sales Practices Act and the Federal Telephone Solicitation Act.

Elected Ohio Attorney General in 2006, Attorney Dann became a national leader in the effort to hold banks and predatory lenders accountable for victimizing homeowners. He initiated securities fraud claims against the creators of mortgage-backed securities, created the Save the Dream program which assists Ohio homeowners facing foreclosure, mobilized Mortgage Fraud Task Forces in Ohio's major cities, challenged the standing of mortgage servicers to foreclose in cases to which the State of Ohio was a party, and worked with Former Ohio Chief Justice Thomas Moyer to organize over 1,200 volunteer lawyers to represent homeowners in foreclosure. Today, Dann is an active member of SAGE (Society of Attorneys General Emeritus) and the Democratic Attorneys General Association.

Upon leaving office in May 2008, Dann volunteered to represent homeowners facing foreclosure. In the course of that work, he became convinced that many loan servicers lacked the standing necessary to foreclose on his clients. Motivated by the injustices he saw and recognizing that the incidence of fraudulent foreclosure practices had reached epidemic proportions in Ohio, he decided to establish The Dann Law Firm and began representing clients in every corner of the state.

In 2011, Dann and a number of other attorneys filed a class action lawsuit against the largest "foreclosure mill" law firm operating in Ohio. Dann and other lawyers filed a second class action suit a year later alleging that a number of foreclosure mills and lender processing services engaged in fraudulent practices as they attempted to foreclose on homes. He has also utilized the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the Ohio's Consumer Sales Practices Act on dozens of occasions to hold loan servicers and the law firms that represent them accountable for their actions.

Dann is a member of the American Bar Association, the Federal Bar Association, the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association, the Ohio State Bar Association, the National Association of Consumer Bankruptcy Attorneys, the Society of Attorneys General Emeritus, and the Democratic Attorneys General Association. He is a regular contributor to Attorney at Law Magazine and the Cleveland Metropolitan Bar Association Magazine.
